GOODBYE JULIA

Across the divides of rich and poor, Muslim and Christian, north and south, light-skinned and dark, Mona and Julia become friends. Goodbye Julia tells the story of two women who represent the complicated relationship and differences between northern and southern Sudanese communities. It takes place in Khartoum during the last years of Sudan as a united country, shortly before the 2011 separation of South Sudan.

It is worth noting that Goodbye Julia is the first film produced in Sudan since the revolution

“Kordofani’s fine direction balances the film’s multiple modes: It’s a drama, with shades of a thriller and a sense of its own politics” – Lovie Gyarkye, Hollywood Reporter

JUST A FARMER

Just a Farmer is a compelling drama that authentically portrays the impact of suicide on a rural, Australian family, shedding light on critical mental health issues in farming communities. When tragedy strikes Alison finds herself thrust into the role of managing a struggling farm and navigating the challenges. However, we must advise that this film is not easy to watch at times

HOUSEKEEPING FOR BEGINNERS

From acclaimed filmmaker Goran Stolevski comes a story exploring the universal truths of family, both the ones we’re born into and ones we find for ourselves. Dita never wanted to be a mother, but circumstances force her to raise her girlfriend’s two daughters, tiny troublemaker Mia and rebellious teen Vanesa.

A battle of wills ensues as the three continue to butt heads and become an unlikely family that has to fight to stay together.

“By the end, we’ve soaked up something of modern Macedonia and had our own cultural standards put to the rack” – Amy Nicholson, Washington Post
