TREASURE

A father-daughter road trip set in 1990's Poland the movie follows Ruth, an American music journalist, and her father, Edek, a charmingly stubborn Holocaust survivor, on a journey to his homeland. While Ruth is eager to make sense of her family's past, Edek embarks on the trip with his own agenda. This emotional, funny culture clash of two New Yorkers exploring post-socialist Poland is a powerful example of how reconnecting with family and the past can be an unexpected treasure.

Based on the 1999 novel Too Many Men, by Lily Brett

"Beautifully acted, the story plays out with honesty, offering insight into generational relationships and the importance of remembering history" – Rich Cline, Shadows on the Wall

THE CONVERT

Guy Pearce starts as a British preacher (Thomas Monro) caught up in 1830's Maori wars in this sweeping historical drama. When he arrives in the tiny coastal settlement of Epworth in 1830 he finds discontent, suspicion and friction. After saving the life of a chief's daughter, Monro is thrust into political intrigue during the devastating Musket Wars between Maori tribes.

"The movie takes on a bittersweet note, bringing history to life in all its messy complexity" – Monica Castillo, RogerEbert.com

New Zealand Drama 119 minutes
Director Lee Tamahori

MR BLAKE AT YOUR SERVICE

French Romance/Comedy 110 minutes
Director Gilles Legardinier

Widowed British businessman (John Malkovich) takes a job as butler of a manor house in France to keep alive the memories of his later French wife. The estate, owned by the graceful and aloof Madame de Beauvillier was a once distinguished manor house, but is now a shadow of itself with rooms, staff and residents all longing for better days.

Co-starring Cannes best actress winner Emilie Dequenne, this very sweet and humorous film explores culture clashes, unexpected friendships and second chances at happiness.

"Prepare yourselves for a heart-warming cinematic experience which will leave you smiling" – Palace Cinemas
