Touch is a deeply moving, delicate and spellbinding romance that spans several decades and continents.

Widower, Kristofer, sets off from Iceland on a seemingly impossible mission. Decades earlier the young Kristofer meets his first love, Miko in London. A student of economics he decides to give up his studies and work in a Japanese restaurant. It's there he meets Miko, the owner's daughter and romance blossoms. Then she disappears without a trace – all these decades later, with limited time left, Kristofer returns to London and tries to track her down.

"A search for a lost love makes for a heartrending romantic affair to remember" - Variety

KNEECAP

When a Belfast schoolteacher crashes into the orbit of two unpredictable and raucous best friends, the needle drops on a hip-hop act like no other. Liam Og O hAinidh, Naoise O Caireallain and JJ O Dochartaigh leap onto the screen to play themselves in this heightened comedy drama about the anarchic group, Kneecap, who become unlikely figureheads of a civil rights movement to save their mother tongue.

This highly original film is about liberation, of an indigenous language and of the people who speak it" – Stephen Romei, The Australian
