KID SNOW

When a washed-up tent boxer, Kid Snow, gets one last shot to make a name for himself he's forced to choose between old dreams and new love. Set in a 1970's sweat drenched world of tent boxing in outback Western Australia this is a film about breaking free from the cycle of loss and regret.

"Goldman gives us a contemplative work here, about broken people trying to let go of the things that hold them back" – Cris Kennedy, Inner East Review

THE TEACHER WHO PROMISED THE SEA

In 1935 Antoni Benaiges is hired as a teacher in a small, isolated village in Burgos, Spain. There he establishes an intense relationship with his students, a group of young boys and girls between the ages of 6 and 12. To them he makes a promise – he will take them to see the sea for the first time in their lives.

75 years later, the granddaughter of one of those students, who has set out in search of her grandfather, comes across the wonderful, yet tragic story of this teacher and the tale behind the promise.

"This film is a joy, despite such sadness..." – Stephen Romej, The Australian
